1. The minimum average annual financial turnover of the bidder during the last three years, ending on 31st March of the previous financial year, should be as indicated above in the bid document. Documentary evidence in the form of certified Audited Balance Sheets of relevant periods or a certificate from the Chartered Accountant / Cost Accountant indicating the turnover details for the relevant period shall be uploaded with the bid. In case the date of constitution / incorporation of the bidder is less than 3-year-old, the average turnover in respect of the completed financial years after the date of constitution shall be taken into account for this criteria.

2. Experience Criteria: In respect of the filter applied for experience criteria, the Bidder or its OEM {themselves or through reseller(s)} should have regularly, manufactured and supplied same or similar Category Products to any Central / State Govt Organization / PSU / Public Listed Company for number of Financial years as indicated above in the bid document before the bid opening date. Copies of relevant contracts to be submitted along with bid in support of having supplied some quantity during each of the Financial year. In case of bunch bids, the category of primary product having highest value should meet this criterion.

3. OEM Turn Over Criteria: The minimum average annual financial turnover of the OEM of the offered product during last three years, ending on 31st March of the previous financial year, should be as indicated in the bid document. Documentary evidence in the form of certified Audited Balance Sheets of relevant periods or a certificate from the Chartered Accountant / Cost Accountant indicating the turnover details for the relevant period shall be uploaded with the bid. In case the date of constitution / incorporation of the OEM is less than 3 year old, the average turnover in respect of the completed financial years after the date of constitution shall be taken into account for this criteria.

4. Preference to Make In India products (For bids < 200 Crore): Preference shall be given to Class 1 local supplier as defined in public procurement (Preference to Make in India), Order 2017 as amended from time to time and its subsequent Orders/Notifications issued by concerned Nodal Ministry for specific Goods/Products. The minimum local content to qualify as a Class 1 local supplier is denoted in the bid document. If the bidder wants to avail the Purchase preference, the bidder must upload a certificate from the OEM regarding the percentage of the local content and the details of locations at which the local value addition is made along with their bid, failing which no purchase preference shall be granted. In case the bid value is more than Rs 10 Crore, the declaration relating to percentage of local content shall be certified by the statutory auditor or cost auditor, if the OEM is a company and by a practicing cost accountant or a chartered accountant for OEMs other than companies as per the Public Procurement (preference to Make-in -India) order 2017 dated 04.06.2020. Only Class-I and Class-II Local suppliers as per MII order dated 4.6.2020 will be eligible to bid. Non - Local suppliers as per MII order dated 04.06.2020 are not eligible to participate. However, eligible micro and small enterprises will be allowed to participate. In case Buyer has selected Purchase preference to Micro and Small Enterprises clause in the bid, the same will get precedence over this clause.

5. Estimated Bid Value indicated above is being declared solely for the purpose of guidance on EMD amount and for determining the Eligibility Criteria related to Turn Over, Past Performance and Project / Past Experience etc. This has relevance or bearing on the price to be quoted by the bidders and is also not going to have any impact on bid participation. Also this is not going to be used as a criteria in determining reasonableness of quoted prices which will be determined by the buyer based on its own assessment of reasonableness and based on competitive prices received in Bid / RA process.

- p) It is required that procuring entities as well as Bidders, Suppliers, Contractors, and their sub-contractors, observe the highest standards of ethics during the procurement and execution of such contracts. For the purposes of this provision, the terms set forth below as follows:
- I. "corrupt practice" is the offering, giving, receiving, or soliciting, directly or indirectly anything of value to influence improperly the actions of another party;
  - II. "fraudulent practice" is any act or omission, including a misrepresentation, that knowingly or recklessly misleads, or attempts to mislead, a party to obtain a financial or other benefit or to avoid an obligation;
  - III. "collusive practice" is an arrangement between two or more parties designed to achieve an improper purpose, including to influence improperly the actions of another party;
  - IV. "coercive practice" is impairing or harming, or threatening to impair or harm, directly or indirectly, any party or the property of the party to influence improperly the actions of a party;
  - V. "obstructive practice" is : deliberately destroying, falsifying, altering or concealing evidence material to the investigation or making false statements to investigators in order to materially impede a procuring entity investigation into allegations of a corrupt, fraudulent, coercive or collusive practice; and threatening, harassing or intimidating any party to prevent from disclosing its knowledge of matters relevant to the investigation or from pursuing the investigation; and acts intended to materially impede the exercise of the procuring entity's inspection and audit rights.
- q) The procuring entity will reject a proposal for award if it determines that the Bidder/Service Provider(Consulting and Non-consulting) recommended for award has, directly or through an agent, engaged in corrupt, fraudulent, collusive or coercive or obstructive practices in competing for the contract in question. The procuring entity will cancel the portion of the funds allocated to a contract if it determines at any time that representatives of bidders, suppliers, contractors or consultants engaged in corrupt, fraudulent, collusive, coercive or obstructive practices during the procurement or execution of that contract, without the procuring entity having taken timely and appropriate action satisfactory to the buyer. The procuring entity will sanction a firm or individual, including declaring them ineligible, either indefinitely or for a stated period of time, to be awarded a contract if it at any time determines that the firm has, directly or through an agent, engaged, in corrupt, fraudulent, collusive, coercive, or obstructive practices. Bidders, suppliers, contractors and consultants shall be permitted to inspect their accounts and records and other documents relating to the bid submission and contract performance and to have them audited by auditors appointed by the procuring entity.
- r) As far as possible, disputes may be resolved with mutual agreement between the procuring entity and bidders, suppliers, contractors and consultants through alternate dispute resolution mechanisms to avoid going through arbitration and litigation stages. All the contracts will be governed by the laws of India. The courts of the place from where the acceptance of tender has been issued, shall alone have jurisdiction to decide any dispute arising out of or in respect of the contract. Irrespective of the place of delivery, the place of performance or place of payment under the contract or the place of issue of advance intimation of acceptance of tender, the contract shall be deemed to have been made at the place from where the acceptance of the tender has been issued. In the event of any question, dispute or difference arising under the contract conditions or any special conditions of contract, or in connection with the contract (except as to any matters the decision of which is specially provided for by these or the special conditions) the same will be referred to the sole arbitration of an officer, from the government department other than the department which decided the contract, having sufficient knowledge of law, appointed to be the arbitrator by the purchaser. The decision of the arbitrator shall be final and binding on both the parties to this contract. In the event of the arbitrator dying, neglecting or refusing to act or resigning or being unable to act for any reason, it will be lawful for the purchaser to appoint another arbitrator in place of the outgoing arbitrator in the manner aforesaid, It is further a term of the contract that no person other than the person appointed by the purchaser as aforesaid should act as arbitrator and if for any reason that is not possible the matter is not to be referred to arbitration at all.
