- o) It is required that procuring entities as well as Bidders, Suppliers, Contractors, and their sub-contractors, observe the highest standards of ethics during the procurement and execution of such contracts. For the purposes of this provision, the terms set forth below as follows:
- i. "corrupt practice" is the offering, giving, receiving, or soliciting, directly or indirectly, of anything of value to influence improperly the actions of another party;
 - ii. "collusive practice" is an arrangement between two or more parties designed to achieve an improper purpose, including to influence improperly the actions of another party;
 - iii. "coercive practice" is impairing or harming, or threatening to impair or harm, directly or indirectly, any party or the property of the party to influence improperly the actions of a party;
 - iv. "obstructive practice" is : deliberately destroying, falsifying, altering or concealing of evidence material to the investigation or making false statements to investigators in order to materially impede a procuring entity investigation into allegations of a corrupt, fraudulent, coercive or collusive practice; and threatening, harassing or intimidating any party to prevent it from disclosing its knowledge of matters relevant to the investigation or from pursuing the investigation; and acts intended to materially impede the exercise of the procuring entity's inspection and audit rights.
- p) The procuring entity will reject a proposal for award if it determines that the Bidder/Service Provider(Consulting and Non-consulting) recommended for award has, directly or through an agent, engaged in corrupt, fraudulent, collusive or coercive or obstructive practices in competing for the contract in question. The procuring ent ity will cancel the portion of the funds allocated to a contract if it determines at any time that representatives of the bidders, suppliers, contractors or consultants engaged in corrupt, fraudulent collusive, coercive or obstructive practices during the procurement or execution of that contract, without the procuring entity having taken timely and appropriate action satisfactory to the buyer. The procuring entity will sanction a firm or individual, including declaring them ineligible, either indefinitely or for a stated period of time, to be awarded a contract if it at any time determines that the firm has, directly or through an agent, engaged, in corrupt, fraudulent, collusive, coercive, or obstructive practices. Bidders, suppliers, contractors and consultants to permit the procuring entity to inspect their accounts and records and other documents relating to the bid submission and contract performance and to have them audited by auditors appointed by the procuring entity.

- q) As far as possible, disputes may be resolved with mutual agreement between the procuring entity and bidders, suppliers, contractors and consultants through alternate dispute resolution mechanisms to avoid going through arbitration and litigation stages. All the contracts will be governed by the laws of India. The courts of the place, from where the acceptance of tender has been issued, shall alone have jurisdiction to decide any dispute arising out of or in respect of the contract. Irrespective of the place of delivery, the place of performance or place of payment under the contract or the place of issue of advance intimation of acceptance of tender, the contract will be deemed to have been made at the place from where the acceptance of the tender has been issued. In the event of any question, dispute or difference arising under the contract conditions or any special conditions of contract, or in connection with the contract (except as to any matters the decision of which is specially provided for by these or the special conditions) the same will be referred to the sole arbitration of an officer, from the government department other than the department which decided the contract, having sufficient knowledge of law, appointed to be the arbitrator by the Buyer. The decision of the arbitrator shall be final and binding on both the parties to this contract. In the event of the arbitrator dying, neglecting or refusing to act or resigning or being unable to act for any reason, it will be lawful for the Buyer to appoint another arbitrator in place of the outgoing arbitrator in the manner aforesaid, It is further a term of the contract that no person other than the person appointed by the Buyer as aforesaid should act as arbitrator and if for any reason that is not possible, the matter is not to be referred to arbitration at all. Arbitrator may, from time to time, with the consent of all parties to the contract enlarge the time for making the award. In pursuance of a reference, the assessment of the costs incidental to the reference and award respectively will be at the discretion of the arbitrator. Subject to as aforesaid, the Arbitration and Conciliation [Amendment] Act, 2015 amended up to date and the rules there under and any statutory modification thereof for the time being in force will be deemed to apply to the Arbitration proceedings under this clause. The arbitrator will be requested to give a reasoned award. The venue of arbitration will be the place from which formal Acceptance of Tender is issued or such other place as the Buyer at his discretion may determine.
